

KEYNOTE SPEAKER – BRYANT COLLIER

Bryant is a Georgia native and guaranteed to inspire and challenge you to conquer the world! An inspirational speaker from the state of Georgia, Bryant travels the country empowering and encouraging leaders to never give up on their journey.

Bryant is an admired speaker and mentor of leadership development, but if you ask him, he just thinks of himself as an ordinary guy who loves to eat but not more than he loves to inspire and motivate others to face their fears, push through adversity and make a change in the world.

After graduating with a Masters in Organizational Leadership, Bryant Collier has dedicated his life to mentoring and walking alongside others in the journey of life because he is convinced that with motivation and affirmation anyone can become an influencer and inspiration to others. He is currently pursuing a doctoral degree in Global Leadership & Institutional Reform from Virginia Union University.

Bryant is the founder and Chief Visionary Officer of BCollierSpeaks and the thought curator of the podcast #Baffirmed and the weekly moment of inspiration “Come Here Friend”. His mission is to push you to your best tomorrow through inspiration, affirmation, & mentorship.
